MASS FOR THE BEREAVED

I am conscious that normally for our bereavement Mass, we would invite as many people to attend as possible, but given our restrictions, that is not possible at the moment. We will be recording a special Mass for the bereaved; and will put it online via our parish YouTube channel, and which will be available on our parish website and Facebook page in November. Once the Mass is uploaded, I will make sure that the video web address is available. Please keep in your thoughts and prayers all who have died, especially during the month of November.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace. Amen.

I saw a huge number, impossible to count,

of people from every nation, race, tribe and language

WEEKEND MASS ATTENDANCE

While it is wonderful to see people coming to Mass, we need to remember that there are limited places in both of our churches. Our weekend Mass spaces get booked up very quickly, and when people phone we have to tell them there is no more space. In our communities there are people who work during the week, and so cannot come to weekday Mass, but they would like to come a weekend Mass. As the Sunday obligation has not been reinstated (and any Mass you attend is fulfilling the Sunday obligation), I would ask that if you are able to attend Mass during the week, that you do so and not book a place for the weekend Masses. This will allow someone else who can't come during the week to be able to come along at the weekend. Thank you for your understanding.

SACRAMENTS

If you, or someone that you know, would like to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation or a home Communion/sick visit, please phone the office to arrange it with Fr. Liam. Also, if you, or someone you know, is currently in hospital and would like a visit, please ask the ward to phone the hospital chaplaincy to arrange a visit. From the chaplaincy priest. Many thanks.

If you have any names you would like to bring to Church for our November Pious list, please write them on a piece of paper, place into an envelope (along with any donation) marked "November/Pious List", and either post it through Saint Oswald's Presbytery door, or put it into the collection basket in either Church. They will all be placed into a basket which will be placed in front of our altars for Mass. During November, one of our two Sunday Masses will be for the intentions of all the Faithful Departed especially those on our Pious List.
