REQUIEM MASS FOR QUEEN ELIZABETH II

Archbishop Malcom McMahon will celebrate a requiem Mass in thanksgiving for the life of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and the repose of her soul, on Tuesday 13 September at 7pm at the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King. All are welcome to attend. There will also be a book of condolence for visitors to sign.

SAINT OSWALD'S MEMORIAL GARDEN

Our Memorial Garden is starting to look shabby and cluttered, due to the many old and faded flowers and ornaments that have been left. During September, the whole Memorial Garden area will be cleared of any old flowers or items that are dead, faded, or left in an unkept state (including any plastic items left on graves). This will be to prepare for a new Rosebush section of the garden, which is to be installed soon.

Please note:

Once the garden has been cleared, no plastic items will be allowed, especially as we try to cut down on the amount of plastic that we use, and once installed, no memorials at all will be allowed within the Rosebush section, as a new stone will be used to inscribe the names of any loved ones who will be buried there. We ask that you try to keep our Memorial Garden as tidy and presentable as possible. Many thanks for your understanding, and for your ongoing support in making sure that our Memorial Garden is a beautiful, prayerful, and respectful place to visit and remember our loved ones.

SPECIAL THANKS

My thanks to all who have helped keep the services running within the parishes these last few weekends, without your help and assistance we would have to have stopped all services while I was away. Your help and dedication to the parish community is greatly appreciated, not just by me, but by the whole community. Thank you for your help.

QUEEN ELIZABETH II

The Most Reverend Malcolm McMahon OP, Archbishop of Liverpool, has issued the following statement on the death of Queen Elizabeth II:

'I am deeply saddened to hear the news about the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. I pray for the repose of her soul and for all the members of the Royal Family at this time of sorrow. On 21 April 1927, her 21st birthday, in a speech broadcast on the radio from Cape Town, the then Princess Elizabeth dedicated her life to the service of the Commonwealth saying: "I declare before you all that my whole life whether it be long or short shall be devoted to your service and the service of our great imperial family to which we all belong". Today we give thanks for that lifetime of service to our country and for her leadership of the Church of England during her 70 year reign. The celebrations we witnessed earlier this year for her Platinum Jubilee show how much respect and love people had for her. She will be remembered for
