SVP WINTER CLOTHING APPEAL

Our Parish SVP will be holding a winter clothing appeal in October, in order to help those who are in need during the coldest months of the year. We are looking for any winter clothes that are in good and wearable condition. Many thanks for your support.

IMPROVING COMMUNICATION GROUP

Saint Oswald's Presbytery hosts a Hard of Hearing / Lip Reading group, which focusses on improving communication and helping to better understand hearing problems. The group meets on Mondays at 10:30am, and lasts about two hours. It will be starting on Monday 3rd October 2022, and will initially meet for 10 weeks. If you would like to come along, you would be very welcome, just turn up!

SAINT OSWALD'S MEMORIAL GARDEN

Our Memorial Garden is starting to look shabby and cluttered, due to the many old and faded flowers and ornaments that have been left. During September, the whole Memorial Garden area will be cleared of any old flowers or items that are dead, faded, or left in an unkept state (including any plastic items left on graves). This will be to prepare for a new Rosebush section of the garden, which is to be installed soon.

Please note:

Once the garden has been cleared, no plastic items will be allowed, especially as we try to cut down on the amount of plastic that we use, and once installed, no memorials at all will be allowed within the Rosebush section, as a new stone will be used to inscribe the names of any loved ones who will be buried there. We ask that you try to keep our Memorial Garden as tidy and presentable as possible. Many thanks for your understanding, and for your ongoing support in making sure that our Memorial Garden is a beautiful, prayerful, and respectful place to visit and remember our loved ones.
