MESSAGE FROM SISTERS DOROTHY AND BENEDICTE

“We want to let you know that we will be leaving later this year and moving to another part of the Archdiocese. Our present accommodation is not ours, and is no longer safe or suitable to live in. We are mentioning this now as word will be getting out and we want you all to know first”.
We wish Sisters Dorothy and Benedicte well in their future ministry within the Archdiocese, and we will continue to keep them in our prayers.

MESSAGE FROM FR. LIAM

Thank you for all your prayers, thoughts, and messages during my recent illness; I am feeling much better, and I was very grateful when the isolation period finished. It's not often you hear someone complaining about having to take time off, but there are only so many shows you can watch on TV before getting bored! God bless. Fr. Liam
